

This picture is a combination of a phenoxy herbicide and Everest Herbicide. The epinasty (leaf curl) is caused by the Phenoxy Herbicide.

The general yellowing and stunting is caused by the Everest.

Healthy versus Everest and phenoxy injury-CRX 2004

Everest causes beets to turn yellow in color and also to lay flat on the ground, as indicated in the bottom 2 photos.

