

Figure 1. Internal vascular reddish brown coloring from Fusarium.

Figure 2. Thinned stand and stunted sugarbeets due to Fusarium infection.

Figure 3. Stunting and leaf necrosis due to Fusarium.

Figure 4. Vascular reddish brown discoloration due to Fusarium.

Figure 5. Stunting and leaf necrosis due to Fusarium.

Figure 6. Vascular system blockage due to Fusarium. Reddish brown in color. Notice proliferation of hair roots.

Figure 7. Vascular system blockage of Fusarium infection. Reddish brown in color.

Figure 8. Thinned stand and sugarbeets dying from Fusarium infection.

Figure 9. Interveinal yellowing from Fusarium infection.

Figure 10. Yellowing from Fusarium infection.

Figure 11. Thinned stand of susceptible variety on the left and tolerant variety on the right in a Fusarium infested field.

Figure 12. Yellowing from Fusarium.