

The elongated petioles and epinasty are caused by the Starane in the drift application.

The beige to light tan burning on the leaves is caused by Bronate.

